

Harvey was a great opportunity for me, obviously. Other performances, before and after that one, helped me to cobble together a sideline in music and theatre — something completely different from work in aerospace, anyway (and, oh yeah, there were girls in those productions). One of the earliest plays was a Max-Shulman creation that flopped on Broadway. At the University of Minnesota, though (where I took a course), it was a hit; the play was based on that setting. I was “Roger Hailfellow” the president of “Alpha Cholera” fraternity.

BARE FOOT BOY WITH CHEEK

CAST
(In Order of Appearance)

Roger Hailfellow.....	Jim Farrell
Shyster Fiscal.....	Bill Boughton
Freshman.....	Jay Ells
Asa Hearthrug.....	Sandy Rosen
Eino Ffllikkinnenn.....	David Watts
Noblesse Oblige.....	Jan Knudson
Clothilde Pfefferkorn.....	Joanne Jonson
Yetta Samovar.....	Joan Eastman
Professor Schultz.....	William Hillard
Peggy Hepp.....	Jeannie Larson
Kermit McDermott.....	John Gill
Boris Fiveyearplan.....	Ron Michaelson
Playwright.....	James Seaberg
Gus.....	Ralph Booton
Muskie Pike.....	John Davidson
Musician.....	John Donahue

DANCERS

Dan Cashman, James Clark, Perry George, Richard Myhre, Eulis Pierce, Dennis Stephens, William White, Michelle Davidson, Elaine Fedors, Sherryll Hahn, Janene Hanson, Sandi Kronebusch, Marlene Olson, Judy Serrell.

SINGERS

Allen Block, Beth Dahl, Elaine Davis, Judi Fiore, Judith Greenwell, Mary Hamlin, Steph Hoag, Bob Kuennen, Olivia Langman, Lowell Lundeen, Dee Mareck, Harold Nelson, Albert Pacini, Barbara Parke, Jack Perpich, Barbara Reese, Barbara Rollins, Harriet Rosenberg, Anne Schauer, Russell Walsh, Dick Winther.

PLACE: The Campus TIME: The Present

Then in 1994 (just before I grew a beard), America's oldest theatre produced Cole.

Cole
Through July 31st
Vagabond Theatre

The Vagabond Players continue their 78th season with Cole, a musical revue of Cole Porter songs, on weekends. This musical extravaganza is directed by Terry Long, with musical direction by John Weber and choreography by Michael Horne.

The talented cast includes: Suella Hanlon, Betsy Narrow, Jim Farrell, Doug Lisenbee and Dawn Terese.

This promises to be a truly delicious, delightful and de-lovely evening at the theatre. So come celebrate the freshness of Cole Porter's music.

Cole is appearing at The Vagabond Theatre, 808 S. Broadway, in Fell's Point, Fridays and Saturdays at 8:30 p.m. and Sundays at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. Tickets are $9 Friday and Sunday evenings, $10 Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon. For more information call 563-9135.